Biography

Lauren Lawrence brings a diverse legal background to The Willis Law Group. Following graduation from Texas Christian University, Lauren attended Texas Tech University School of Law where she was a member of the Organization of Women Law Students and National Order of the Barristers. Prior to serving as a Felony and Misdemeanor Prosecutor for the Tarrant and Denton County Criminal District Attorney's Office, she served as Legal Counsel and Legislative Director for a Texas State Senator, reading and analyzing all legislation pertaining to the Senate Education Committee and advising the Senator on policy matters, specifically on education and higher education matters. As a Senior Trial Attorney with a prominent national insurance agency, Lauren managed a high-volume case load of first- and third-party personal injury cases from inception to trial.
