Ian McGirk Webb is a litigation and appellate attorney whose practice encompasses insurance coverage, commercial litigation, appellate advocacy, and complex legal research. He has represented clients in state and federal courts, drafting briefs, motions, and legal memoranda addressing a broad range of substantive and procedural issues.

Ian has experience handling matters involving insurance coverage disputes, commercial litigation, immigration-related proceedings, and appellate advocacy. He is known for his extensive legal research skills, persuasive writing, and strategic analysis in high-stakes litigation matters. Throughout his career, he has assisted clients through all phases of litigation, including discovery, motion practice, hearings, settlements, and appeals.

Drawing on a diverse professional background that includes business analytics and financial analysis, Ian brings a practical and detail-oriented approach to legal problem-solving. His ability to synthesize complex legal and factual issues allows him to deliver thoughtful and effective advocacy on behalf of his clients.

Ian earned his Juris Doctor from Texas A&M University School of Law and his Bachelor of Science in Economics from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. He is licensed to practice law in Texas.
